Conference:

Individual Beings, Societies, and States

January 23–25, 2020

SGH Warsaw School of Economics, Warsaw, Poland, building G, room 152

It is the first conference organized by SGH Warsaw School of Economics (Poland) and Waseda University (Japan). Our aim is to create interactions between faculty members of both Universities. The topics covered in the conference are diverse. The conference emphasizes discussions on new ideas, issues, foundations, as well as communication between participants in a variety of fields. Each presenter is given 45 minutes for his/her presentation including discussion, and should invite questions from the audience.
